Bonaparte.—RESPECTED FRIEND: A popular case has already occurred in my practice, when Dr. JACOB WEBER's REVIGORATING CREAM has had much benefit effecting the Mr. G. of the case was a young man, who, notwithstanding the most strenuous exertions on my part, he continued to till he was nearly a skeleton; his appetite was very bad and sleep restless, his spirit very much depressed, and occasional fits of fever, made me fear for his life; not for his life he was sick, but three bottles of your CREAM, and the effect on him is really electrically wonderful. I have no place of sale. Now, if you will do us the favor to sell the salve we would be most respectfully and truly yours Sacramento, Sept. 27, 1856. ERZA E. BOURNE.
